

Asian Data Privacy Laws

MORNING WORKSHOP

5 October 2018, Linklaters, London

- ▶ Privacy laws in China, Japan, Korea and India
- ▶ Significant developments expected across other Asian jurisdictions, such as Thailand and Indonesia
- ▶ Questions companies are asking; helping you plan where to allocate company resources

Find more information on this event at www.privacylaws.com/events

PL&B Reports

Stay informed of data protection legislative developments worldwide

Subscribe online at www.privacylaws.com

£250
+ VAT per person

PUBLICATIONS • CONFERENCES • CONSULTING • TRAINING • COMPLIANCE AUDITS RECRUITMENT • PRIVACY OFFICERS NETWORK • ROUNDTABLES • RESEARCH

Privacy Laws & Business, 2nd Floor, Monument House, 215 Marsh Road, Pinner, Middlesex HA5 5NE
More information: kan.thomas@privacylaws.com Tel: +44 (0)20 8868 9200 www.privacylaws.com

Workshop Sessions

5 October 2018, Linklaters, London

09.00 Registration

09.30 Asia Overview

- ▶ Regional developments and what we are seeing in the market

Professor Graham Greenleaf and Adrian Fisher

10.15 China

- ▶ The Cybersecurity Law

Adrian Fisher

- ▶ The development of data protection law

Professor Graham Greenleaf

11.00 Tea/coffee Break

11.15 Japan and Korea

- ▶ The status of adequacy findings.
- ▶ The factors which will favour and work against current and future adequacy applications from the leaders, Japan and South Korea, and potential new applicants, such as Taiwan

Professor Graham Greenleaf

12.00 India

- ▶ Developments in data protection law

Professor Graham Greenleaf

- ▶ How the market is responding

Adrian Fisher

India's government has claimed that it is ready for an EU adequacy application. But do the facts support this position? The SriKrishna Committee has proposed a law which, if enacted, might allow India to make a plausible claim, but has many potential deficiencies.

12.45 Wrap-up

- ▶ Summary and the major developments expected across Asian jurisdictions in the next 12 months

Professor Graham Greenleaf and Adrian Fisher

13.00 Close

Register at: info@privacylaws.com

Workshop Host:

Linklaters

Sponsor:

OneTrust
Privacy Management Software

Professor Graham Greenleaf, Asia-Pacific Editor, PL&B International Report has worked closely with Privacy Laws & Business since attending PL&B's 3rd Annual International Conference in 1991 and has unrivalled in-depth knowledge of privacy bills and the working of privacy laws in the region.

Since 2006 he has provided consultancy advice to the European Commission on data privacy laws in 12 countries in the Asia-Pacific region and since 2011 researched the global survey of privacy laws published in the PL&B International Report.

Adrian Fisher, Head of Privacy Practice, Linklaters, Singapore is a senior technology and data privacy lawyer. He leads Linklaters' data privacy practice in Asia working closely with clients throughout the region across a range of industries on the implications of the emerging data privacy landscape.

His team support clients on the legal and regulatory issues that arise in moving operations and business functions from traditional environments to online or digital environments.

Other Forthcoming Data Protection Events

The Future For Collective Action Under The GDPR

AFTERNOON WORKSHOP

23 October 2018, Brussels, Belgium

The aim is to raise awareness of upcoming challenges flowing from the GDPR's Art. 80 on individuals' right of redress via collective (class) action.

- ▶ Mapping European experience of collective action for data protection rights
- ▶ Quantifying harm and compensation

GDPR Help!

ONE DAY ROUNDTABLE

28 November 2018, HSBC, London

Helen Moores, Senior Policy Officer at the Information Commissioner's Office, will explain the ICO's new policies:

- ▶ Certification is a new area for European data protection law with many issues to resolve
- ▶ Codes of conduct can enable sectors to act together, to address common issues hard to solve in isolation

More information at www.privacylaws.com/events

Privacy Laws & Business
32nd Annual International Conference
1-3 July 2019, St John's College, Cambridge, UK

www.privacylaws.com/annualconference